

Trump's brilliant VP choice in our globalist society

"The drive of the Rockefellers and their allies is to create a one-world government combining super capitalism and Communism under the same tent, all under their control... Do I mean conspiracy? Yes, I do. I am convinced there is such a plot, international in scope, generations old in planning, and incredibly evil in intent." –Congressman Larry P. McDonald, 1976, allegedly killed in the Korean Airlines 747 that was allegedly shot down by the Soviets.

While running errands today, I was listening to Alex Jones' show hoping to hear an update from frequent guest, Roger Stone. Instead, I heard Jesse Ventura spouting his diatribe against Donald J. Trump. He stated that both Trump and Hillary have massive negatives, and he wants the public to vote for Gary Johnson of the Libertarian party, so as to divide the electoral college so no one wins. He also stated that we need to get rid of the electoral college and go to a popular vote.

Gary Johnson is the former governor of New Mexico, he is pro-abortion, for a Constitutional Convention, for a pathway to citizenship for illegal aliens, and pro-gay marriage.

As for the electoral college, does anyone in America even know why our founders put it in the Constitution? Only 25 of the top 75 universities in America even teach American history anymore! Please read this brilliant expose of the push for the popular vote and the elimination of the electoral college by retired attorney and federalist papers expert, Publius Huldah. The electoral college protects the smaller states and gives them equal voice in the elections. Our founders were brilliant men, something lacking in today's political realm.

Trusting Trump

Do I trust Donald J. Trump to do what he said he'd do? Do I trust Donald J. Trump to stand by the policies he stated in his book, Crippled America? Do I trust Donald J. Trump to choose the right people for every position he needs to fill as president?

The answer is a resounding YES, I TRUST MR. TRUMP!

Do I agree with all of them? Of course not, but I trust Mr. Trump's ability to do what he says he will do, and he's a heck of a lot savvier than I am.

Okay people, let's get it together here. In the political society we have today, there are very few people to choose from who would be hailed as wonderful by those of us who know more than the average citizen. The political realm is nearly all globalist, and if you haven't seen that by now, you need to get your head out of the sand. Left and right, Dems and Repubs, are both in on the same agenda, and that includes the phony "Christian" right. So choosing someone for top spots in the Trump administration is not going to be easy.

Will Trump make mistakes? Of course he will, but he will remedy those mistakes and make it right. Remember, Trump has no problem saying, "You're fired."

The Top Choices for VP

In my previous article, Three Vital Considerations for Trump's VP Choice, I said there were three men who were my top choices. The first was Senator Sessions, the second was LTG Michael T. Flynn. Both men would have been superb and served Mr. Trump well. And there was a third choice who hasn't been mentioned.

Long discussions ensued with Senator Sessions, and they came to the conclusion that he was needed more in the Senate than in the White House, albeit he was first choice.

The second choice, and a man I greatly admire, was LTG Michael Flynn. I believe Mr. Flynn would have been the VP had he not taken a middle of the road answer when asked about pro-life/abortion. The one-issue voters would not have taken to him, despite the fact that Flynn is the best choice we have to oversee and eliminate the Islamic invasion in America. He would have freed up Mr. Trump to tackle other overwhelming problems facing our country. I hope he will have a spot in Trump's administration.

Uniting the GOP with Indiana Gov. Mike Pence

Pence is Mr. Trump's ultimate choice, and in fact, it was brilliant. He has succeeded in greasing the skids to the nomination and his election. The globalist enemies of Mr. Trump, Jeb Bush, Paul Ryan, and delegate Bruce Ash of Arizona, (who called for the execution of the entire Trump campaign), along with the Christian right evangelicals, are endorsing Governor Pence. Trump gave them one of their own, albeit a weaker specimen, and one who happens to be a strong pro-lifer. Mr. Trump said he would unite the party, and it looks as though he is doing just that.

I would have much preferred to see the men I mentioned above, or even Rudy Giuliani, who has massive name recognition and is beloved by all America for his actions after 9/11. Rudy would have accepted I'm sure, and despite being a liberal Republican, the American people would have accepted him gladly.

☒ Too many people do not know Mike Pence, but they will soon enough. I just pray that Trump changes and encourages Pence, and that this is not a Reagan/Bush type alliance. We don't want 8 years of President Trump to be undone by the following 8 years of Mike Pence.

One must always remember that Trump is not only a great negotiator, not only a multi-billionaire in his own right, not only the father of very successful and brilliant children, but Trump himself is always five to ten chess moves ahead of everyone else. So whatever you're thinking, relax and watch, because this man knows exactly what he's doing.

Does this old saying ring any bells? "Keep your friends close, and your enemies closer."

Ann Coulter broke with Donald over his choice of VP, but know that Ann is a publicity whore, and she endorsed McConnell for Senate...so give it little credence.

The backlash from Hillary has already begun. She has slammed Pence for saying, "I long for the day Roe is in the ash heap of history." And she's losing support! Hillary cannot step foot in our White House ever again, or this nation is finished!

✘ Thank God VP is Not Newt

The media just foamed at the mouth constantly pushing Gingrich for VP, but those of us who do our homework know all about Newt. Dozens of people have written about him, including yours truly, Steve Farrell in his 8 part article, and fellow researcher, Devy Kidd. I detest this CFR globalist lump of humanity who divorced two wives, one after she became ill. Needless to say, he's not a "family values" type of guy. Had Newt been the VP choice, I would be afraid of another JFK/LBJ scenario.

- In 1968 he was the Southern regional director for the brief and unsuccessful presidential campaign of the liberal Nelson Rockefeller.
- In 1976, Gingrich ran for Congress, emphasizing environmentalist and "reform" themes, and enlisting significant support from liberal Democrats.
- Gingrich wrote the foreword for Alvin and Heidi Toffler's Third Wave book, Creating a New Civilization, and has been in this camp since the 70s. Few people realize he wants to rid us of our Constitution and private property rights.

- He voted Yea to the creation of the Dept. of Education*
- He voted YEA to designating 68 million acres as Federal protected wilderness.*
- Gingrich is pro-amnesty, pro-foreign aid, and pro-Obamacare.*
- Newt is also big on trade agreements.*
- He voted for Public Law 101-216, which eliminates all armaments, including those of private citizens. This was signed into law by George H.W. Bush.*
- Worst of all, he actually called Mr. Trump's statements about the judge hearing his Trump University case, "utterly stupid," when the statements made by Mr. Trump, regarding the judge, were spot on.*

Sean Hannity strongly promoted Gingrich, so much so that according to CNN, he flew Newt to Indianapolis for the final meeting with Trump. I cannot see where Newt would match up to any of Mr. Trump's policies.

Trump's Administration Choices

There are some excellent people to choose from, and I'm sure many of my readers would have other suggestions.

Here's a few of the choices I've had for various positions, but there are many more who could be just as competent and effective.

Dr. Ben Carson would be an excellent choice for surgeon general as long as he doesn't make vaccines mandatory.

LTG Michael Flynn would be a superb choice for head of the Joint Chiefs of Staff or the Dept. of Homeland Security, or any other intel position.

Rudy Giuliani would be wonderful as head of the Dept. of Homeland Security or Attorney General.

Palin says she'd gladly oversee the dismantling of the EPA.

There are so many administrative areas to be filled, and I'm sure Mr. Trump is thinking about great choices to fill all of them. But first, we need to get him elected!

Conclusion

More and more endorsements are coming in from people you'd expect would reject Mr. Trump. It is because they see the real man and his goals for America.

Right now however, he has to conquer the Convention and gain the nomination despite the likes of phony conservative, Senator Mike Lee of Utah.

Mr. Trump is the people's choice. We need to sit back, relax, and watch him work. He would be a great 45th President of the United States of America.
