

Trump's early presidential choices

As much as people refuse to believe it, the company you keep does have an impact and influence on your choices, and that my friends, is why Donald J. Trump will choose well. He just has to make sure everyone in his boat is rowing, and not drilling holes when he's not looking.

Those of us who are long time researchers into people in politics know that Mr. Trump has chosen very well with some, and not so well with others, but wait and watch. We all must remember that this is the man who got himself elected, and knew how to do it. Right now, he's like an angel in kindergarten, and he will make some mistakes, but he's already rectified a couple, so hang on to your hats, because this man is a quick study! The Revolution has begun!

Three different groups of people ran his campaign, all of whom were excellent for the time he needed them. The democrat controlled media made hay out of it, and excoriated everything he did, insinuating that he was losing it by naming new people, when he knew exactly what he was doing.

Matthew 10:6 often comes to mind when I think of the brilliance of our new President, "Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves: be ye therefore wise as serpents, and harmless as doves."

How many times our new President has proven to us that he has a plan, and we didn't see it. His plan and his goals worked. He is our new President, despite the despicable lies spewed for months by the Democrat (read Clinton) controlled media.

Let's look at some of his fabulous choices.

Nigel Farage and Trump

Don't these two great guys look happy! By now we've all heard that Nigel Farage has joked about being President Trump's Ambassador to the European Union. He should be Britain's Ambassador to the United States, so we could get our bust of Churchill back in the White House!

Do I expect Brexit's to break out; you bet I do, and so does Nigel. European leaders have said that Trump's election will act as a catalyst for a revolution across Europe. [Link] Americans love Nigel, and so does Trump; he's a terrific friend.

Reince Priebus, Chief of Staff

Mike Savage is going crazy over the appointment of Reince Priebus as Chief of Staff. The nationally syndicated talk-radio host pledged to hold Trump's feet to the fire and he is keeping his word, criticizing the appointment of Republican National Committee Chairman Reince Priebus as White House chief of staff.

I have a totally different take on Priebus than does Savage. Reince actually helped get Donald elected during the last third of his campaign. He worked for him, campaigned for him, and fought the neo-cons who were reticent in their support. His actions certainly seem loyal to Trump. Think about this. Trump cannot appoint all outsiders; he has to appoint some insiders who are on his side. Why? Because he needs loyal insiders to help him get what he promised the American electorate who love him and believe in him. I believe Priebus is the man who will help keep the establishment republicans corralled for Trump, and for his policies.

Steve Bannon for Chief

Strategist

Dingy Harry says Trump must rescind his Steve Bannon appointment, but that isn't going to happen Senator Reid! Trump has named Steve Bannon White House Chief Strategist, and as such, he and Reince Priebus will be working closely together to help President Trump.

Harry Reid claimed on the floor of the Senate that Trump had just put a flaming anti-Semite into a job very close to the President. Sen. John Cornyn spoke on the Senate floor after Reid and accused the Democrat of being a sore loser. "We used to call people like that 'sore losers,'" he said. "But frankly, what he does is also contribute to the coarsening of our discourse and debate here in the United States Senate."

As David Horowitz pointed out, the source for the claim that Bannon is anti-Semitic is "a one sentence claim from an angry ex-wife in divorce court no less, that Bannon didn't want their kids to go to school with Jews." Horowitz noted in response that Bannon had wanted to produce a Horowitz biopic: "I find that particularly amusing since Bannon wanted to make a film to celebrate this Jew's life.”

CNN actually claimed that Bannon wrote an article about Bill Kristol entitled, Bill Kristol, a Renegade Jew. Their big mistake was that the article was actually written by David Horowitz, a fellow Jew, and Steve Bannon had nothing to do with it.

Pamela Geller has openly stated she stands with Bannon. She said, “I am fortunate to say that I have known and worked with Steve Bannon ever since the tragic passing of Andrew Breitbart. While he was at Breitbart, he would ask me to write articles on pressing issues – usually several times each week. Longtime readers who are deeply familiar with my work know that I am a fiercely proud Jew and unapologetic Zionist. As long as I have known Steve, he has been an unabashed supporter of Israel, and of those of us who fight against Jew-hatred and racism. Unequivocally. He is whip-smart, courageous, bold, and loyal.

Former Breitbart employee, Jeff Shapiro, said the same thing. [\[Link\]](#)

The Real Anti-Semites in the Democrat Party

Want to know where the real anti-Semites are? In your own party Harry Reid, and one in particular is now being considered for the Chair of the DNC. His name is Keith Ellison, and he is the Democratic Congressman from Minnesota. He is one of only two Muslims in Congress, the other being Indiana's André Carson. Harry Reid has endorsed Ellison for this position over former Vermont Governor, Howard Dean.

From Robert Spencer at

Frontpage Magazine comes the truth:

In 2008, Ellison accepted \$13,350 from the Muslim American Society \(MAS\) to go on a pilgrimage to Mecca. The Muslim American Society is a Muslim Brotherhood organization: “In recent years, the U.S. Brotherhood operated under the name Muslim American Society, according to documents and interviews. One of the nation’s major Islamic groups, it was incorporated in Illinois in 1993 after a contentious debate among Brotherhood members.”

That’s from the Chicago Tribune in 2004, in an article that is now carried on the Muslim Brotherhood’s English-language website, Ikhwanweb.

Also, the Hamas-linked Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR) raised large amounts of money for Ellison’s first campaign, and he has spoken at numerous CAIR events. Yet CAIR is an unindicted co-conspirator in a Hamas terror funding case – so named by the Justice Department. CAIR officials have repeatedly refused – to – denounce Hamas and Hezbollah as terrorist groups.

Hamas has declared: “Killing Jews is worship that draws us close to Allah.” Ellison has spoken before several groups that have ties to Hamas, and has accepted money from a Muslim Brotherhood group; Hamas styles itself the Muslim Brotherhood for Palestine. Does Keith Ellison also, then, think that “killing Jews is worship that draws us close to Allah”? No establishment media “journalist” would ever dream of asking him that question, but it’s a fair one: Hamas repeatedly demonstrates genuine and murderous anti-Semitism, and Ellison has repeatedly shown himself willing and even eager to associate himself with Hamas-linked groups.

Lieutenant General Michael Flynn

President elect Trump has offered General Flynn the position of National Security Advisor. I am praying he takes it. I believe this is one of the finest military men Trump could have on his staff. There are others, but folks only need to read Flynn’s amazing book, The Field of Fight, to know he absolutely belongs in this role in the Trump administration.

Flynn, a highly decorated military intelligence officer, would serve as Mr. Trump’s principal point of contact with the State Department, the Pentagon and various U.S. intelligence agencies. Flynn left his position with the NIA, frustrated with working under the vacillations, aimless meandering and lack of a desire to win of the Obama White House. He became a vocal critic of the current White House after his departure.

Americans Voted Overwhelming for Trump

The entire map was red! Trump won the electoral college and the popular vote as well. The non-Partisan groups "Vote Stand" and "True the Vote" have just announced that they have completed an analysis of 180 million voter registrations, and have concluded that more than 3 million non-citizens voted on Election Day. [Link]

Just how much voter fraud occurred? We don't know the answer to that, but we do know that the Trump campaign was all over the country watching. We also don't know how many Chicago dead got up out of their graves to vote. It is my opinion, and it's only an opinion, that had this been a totally honest election, blue would rarely have been seen on the map.

We won the election, and now we have to win the rest. The democrats are in dire straits, and that's where we need to keep them.

The Main Stream Media

The Media seems to be inciting violence on a massive scale! George Soros and his cronies are PAYING these protesters and staging FAKE riots!!! Some of the protesters are being bused in to "hot zones" from other states!!

Planned Parenthood is none-to-thrilled, nor impressed, by Donald J. Trump's rise to the Presidency. They've been an ardent supporter of using protests to stop the billionaire mogul from achieving this position. And according to an article published on Fox News, they still are.

There is a coordinated effort underway to create panic and unrest in America. The media is trying to sell us the line that the country is angry and upset over Trump's election. Nothing could be further from the truth...they are selling another illusion.

As far as the media: don't watch or listen to them; don't believe them; don't buy whatever they are trying to sell you. Second of all, if we ALSO delete the estimated 3,000,000 votes cast by illegal Mexicans, South Americans, Muslims, Africans, and others, then Donald Trump wins the legitimate "popular vote" by millions. Get that, it's millions!

So...throw away those stupid petitions you "useful idiots," and accept it: she didn't win "the popular vote," and she won't. Learn it; live it; love it. Because you're going to have at least eight years of it. We put up with 8 years of Obama's destruction, now you'll have to put up with 8 years of rebuilding America.

Next, I want you to understand that these rioting, "heroes and patriots," that the lying media are pushing and promoting as the greatest thing since 1776, are just a bunch of low-down, paid-for scum and thugs. They're "Criminals."

And one more thing, once President Trump is sworn in, I hope he'll send his Department of Justice after the likes of the scum openly endorsing the assassination of America's new President.

Conclusion

I've been laughing at the number of anti-Trumpers marching through his office, Cruz, Romney, et al. The media is going bonkers reporting that these people may be appointed to a position in Trump's administration. Most likely Trump is garnering support from factions who were against him, but he's having fun doing it and watching the media guessing at what he's up to. So far, Trump's appointments have been skilled and well thought out...

Our blue-collar billionaire President, Donald J. Trump, will take only $1.00 per year in salary and very few vacations, if any. He says there's a lot of work to be done, he's so right!

Pray a hedge of protection around him, his family, and his administration. Pray for divine wisdom for this newly elected outsider. And pray for our country and her people.
