

Trump's Solution to Border Problems?

This is a possible future map of the US, should President Trump succeed in his ideas about drawing together North America. Are his latest thoughts about this a part of his solution to the border crises?

His plan to buy Greenland, liberate Canada, reclaim the Panama Canal, and rename the Gulf of Mexico to the "Gulf of America", makes a map that looks like this!

I was browsing X this morning, and came across this map. I'd been thinking about all the Trump plans that involve other countries, and, frankly, was a bit puzzled – until I looked at the map above, and my eye landed on the minuscule strip of land where Panama joins Columbia.

That border is 211 miles long, and splits the Darien Gap, where so much of the illegal invasion of our borders was staged. That would be a very easy border to defend.

This morning, there is news that TN Rep Andy Ogles has unveiled legislation which would allow Trump to move toward that goal once he returns to office.

And, this one, saying Greenland is ready to talk.

Of course, there is a long way to go to get anything accomplished in DC under the 47th President. First and foremost, we must move safely through the inauguration, which is not a foregone conclusion. Wray, the retiring Dir. of the FBI, on his way out the door, now speaks of the very real and urgent threat we face from China in the next days.

Suddenly white patriots and people who worship God aren't our main trouble here in America? This man, and his entire support network disgust me to the core, and, I know, a lot of you, too. More importantly for now is, how much does this America-hater know and for how long has he known it? And, if what he knows is as serious as he says, WHY hasn't he revealed it earlier and/or why haven't there been lots of whistleblowers on the subject?

One thing is abundantly clear. Treason has been the underlying state of affairs in DC for some time.

This points to the depth of the damage done to our nation by the Globalist/Marxist hacks, from Obama on. As we read daily, they are doing everything in their power to continue this until Biden is officially out of power. The old aphasic man doesn't have any idea what he is saying or signing, but he keeps it up.

Naps and ice cream are the White House propellants, and have been for longer than anyone will admit.

A large part of the last-minute POA ("Piss on America") program these last months has been to do with the border. Might it be that Donald Trump has figured out a businessman's solution to the problem?

Just thought I'd toss this out for thought. Whatever happens with this issue, I am SO glad we have elected a businessman who loves the Constitution instead of a dirty politician who will do anything and everything to destroy it.

Sure is a tiny little border...
