

Trump's War Against the Deep State

By Kelleigh Nelson

We do not have government by the majority. We have government by the majority who participate. –Thomas Jefferson

The more righteous your fight, the more opposition you will face. –Donald J. Trump

The polls are just being used as another tool of voter suppression. The polls are an attempt to not reflect public opinion, but to shape it. Yours. They want to depress the heck out of you. –Rush Limbaugh

The battleline between good and evil runs through the heart of every man. –Alexandr Solzhenitsyn

There are 535 electoral college votes. If we had honest elections without any fraud whatsoever, Trump could well beat Reagan's 1984 win of 525 electoral college votes.

Trump's battle is against Obama's "transformation of America."

After his 2008 election, Obama spent eight years weaponizing the entire intelligence community (IC). His top soldiers, Jarrett, Brennan, Clapper and Holder, also weaponized the entire federal government including every alphabet-soup agency. Comey, Lynch, McCabe, Weissmann, Yates, Strzok, Page and Ohr were the high-ranking officials and major players in the agencies Obama oversaw.

They militarized the most fearsome government agencies to target, monitor and presumably illegally unmask political opponents, including members of Congress, journalists reporting unfavorable stories, Trump allies and average Americans.

His comrades in mainstream media (MSM) helped him accomplish his goals.

Our MSM has been infiltrated with hardcore leftists, and actual communists since the fifties, but the 1964 Supreme Court decision in NYTs v. Sullivan gave them the “first amendment right” to lie about public figures. The Leftist Warren Court voted 9-0 in this case and stated that unless “actual malice” could be proven, lawsuits were useless. In effect, they removed states’ rights to sue for slander or libel. Like abortion, this is not one of the federal government’s enumerated powers. These laws belong only to the states.

The decision upended the common law tort rule, the Court placed the burden of proof on the public official plaintiff, stating that the plaintiff must demonstrate “actual malice” with “convincing clarity which the constitutional standard demands.”

From that time on, public figures of the opposing parties were targets. I wrote about this in 2016 when Donald Trump publicly asked how and why the media could continually lie about him. Trump spoke about this case in a 2016 Alabama rally of 35,000 people where the lawsuit against the Times originated.

In 2022, only 34% of Americans trusted MSM. In 2023, trust dropped to 32%. As of October, 2024, confidence is at 31%. Those numbers are shockingly high inasmuch as the MSM twists everything they say to fit their narrative for the Stalinist Democrat Party.

Obama fulfilled his progressive ambition of changing the course of our nation. Then along came Trump to change it once again, back to what patriots want it to be. He needs to smash the corrupt existing order and make their communist advances impossible.

In 2016, the Obama and Clinton mobs never expected a Trump victory and have been attacking his efforts ever since to try to stop their hard-won “transformative” achievements.

Name Calling

The last cry of a failing campaign is to call the opposition names.

On October 18, 2024, The Atlantic published an article, Trump Is Speaking Like Hitler, Stalin, and Mussolini. In response to those harsh headlines, journalist Glenn Greenwald wrote, “When you spend eight years calling a person every bad name you can think of, including Hitler, only to see that it’s not working, so you desperately decide the only thing left for you to do is call him all the bad names at once.”

Hillary old girl, calling Trump “Hitler” simply won’t wash. American Greatness author Stephen Soukup writes that the left has been crying wolf with Nazis and Hitler for so long, that if a real wolf comes along, people won’t recognize it.

Hitler wouldn’t sue Palm Beach County for 100 million because they didn’t want Mar-a-Lago opened to Jewish and black folks. And Hitler wouldn’t move the US embassy to the capital of Israel, like so many presidents before him had promised to do, but never did. You’re barking up the wrong tree old woman! Using slander and libel to attack the man who wants to save the country is a typical Alinsky tactic.

Psychological projection is the Stalinist Party’s game.

“Accuse your enemy of what you are doing, as you are doing it to create confusion.” That quote has been attributed to both Karl Marx and Saul Alinsky. Many on the left today are a disciple and intellectual descendant of both. Hillary Clinton wrote her college thesis on Alinsky. This tactic was also employed by Joseph Goebbels, chief propagandist for the Nazi party. Germany cleverly accused their enemies of what they themselves were doing.

These old tactics have been used to destroy our once booming economy, widespread prosperity and strong national stability.

Survival

Few men could withstand the barrage of attacks, slander and libel that Donald Trump has withstood. First it was hoaxes, witch hunts, and impeachments. Then it was FBI raids, courtrooms, and mug shots. Finally, it was bullets in a Pennsylvania field and a thwarted attempt at his Florida golf course.

We still know very little about the perpetrators behind all the venom, and lead, spewed at our 45th President of these United States.

Yet, Trump stands tall. His sense of humor shines through every response to the left’s attacks on him and his supporters.

His McDonalds’ foray was a magnificent gesture of love for American business and our citizens.

The “garbage” quote by Biden was turned into a fantastic show of love when he drove a pristine garbage truck, provided by Andrew Brisson, the vice president of Loadmaster, to his Green Bay, Wisconsin rally. He kept the sanitation vest on throughout his speech.

Throngs of Americans love this man. They’ve lived through four years of hatred for our Republic and the rule of law. The Lord created humans to be free and the United States was founded on the idea that all people have certain unalienable rights, including liberty.

It's the people who make America great and this latest ad for Trump shows us the diversity of unity in the Trump campaign.

Donald Trump promises to restore the liberty and freedom ensconced in our Declaration of Independence and U.S. Constitution.

There are many who wish to impede his promises.

The Transition Integrity Project

Yes, there is an international criminal conspiracy to steal the election, but if Trump wins, plans are also in place to remove him.

Legal Insurrection Through Lawfare exposed the Transition Integrity Project (TIP). Mike Benz, Executive Director of the Foundation for Freedom Online, is a former State Department diplomat who specialized in international communications and information technology matters. In the following 27-minute video, Mike alerts us to the depths of depravity of the TIP leaders and their plans to derail Trump if he wins the 2024 election.

Rep. Jamie Raskin (D-MD) said, "Let people vote for Trump if they want. We're not going to certify his election anyway. He may be elected, but we're not going to let him be inaugurated."

The TIP is not an organization, but rather a short-term project run under the auspices of the organization, Protect Democracy. They had a diabolical plan for 2020, and now for 2024. They played an election-coup simulator war game in 2020 with Podesta playing Biden and David Frum and Bill Kristol playing Trump.

The red-diaper-babies at Georgetown University Law Center, Rosa Brooks and Mary McCord, have great influence and power. They are the driving forces behind the TIP. When Harris became the Democratic presidential candidate, her husband, Douglas Emhoff, resigned from his law firm DLA Piper, and went to work as a professor at Georgetown University Law Center. Undoubtedly, he's familiar with what is planned should Trump win the 2024 election.

Mike Benz explains:

Here is what happened in June 2020, just about a week after the George Floyd protests broke out in Minneapolis. A gaggle of high-ranking military CIA state department and political insiders all met in Washington in order to war-game a scenario in which Trump lost the election, but clung to power. They contemplated the need for a way to overthrow his government, to basically do a counter-coup in case he did a coup, if he clung to power, if he used the military, if he just didn't respect the election results. They ran four simulations around this. One of these was called a clear Biden win. The second one was too close to tell, but the third one was called, 'clear Trump win,' and they war-gamed how to get Trump out of office even if he legitimately won the electoral college. And make no mistake, this entire thing was 100% Never Trump. The appendix at the back of it was called, 'How to Stop Trumpism after Trump.'

Here's how diabolical this plan was in 2020. Thirteen times in the 17-page document, they called for a need to take to the streets to control perceptions of public legitimacy, to censor the internet so that perceptions of a Joe Biden illegitimate presidency would be minimized.

At the time, they were already contemplating that the only way Joe Biden could win would be through what they called, 'the red mirage blue shift,' that Trump would win on election night, but it would be a 'red mirage' because it would shift blue as mail-in ballots were counted and states would flip. They knew that this was going to cause havoc in the minds of Americans because nothing like this had ever happened where you had multiple states flipping overnight, people popping champagne the night before and waking up to find their opponent is president. So, they wanted to pre-censor public conceptions that Joe Biden's victory would be illegitimate.

What they did, is they had this plan to wrangle the legacy media, the broadcast media, the social media companies, and that this network would descend on every social media network to pass a new 'terms of service violation' called 'delegitimization' which would flag or oust anyone who spoke against their propaganda. It was called, 'reduce, remove, inform.'

One of the groups operating parallel to the TIP, called 'Election Integrity Partnership' (EIP) had a formal partnership with the DHS and they targeted tens of millions of tweets. The Atlantic Council was most significant in the EIP. The Atlantic Council has seven CIA Directors currently serving on its Board of Directors. It effectively bills itself as NATO's think tank. Its annual funding is over a million dollars a year from the Pentagon, over a million dollars a year from the State Department, plus money from a web of CIA cutouts like the National Endowment for Democracy. It is basically a military intelligence backchannel for NATO to be able to coordinate civilian-side changes to laws and society.

Another one of those groups is called Graphika which has gotten over 7 million in funding. It was incubated in the Pentagon's Minerva Initiative which is the psychological operations research center. It is a literal Pentagon psyops firm.

They want to use this coup power again. They make the argument that the electoral college is illegitimate. The NYTs has written that the constitution needs to be torched, and the Washington Post is saying our constitution is a threat to democracy. Even the Dean of Berkeley Law School is saying we need to end the electoral college, which actually protects the smaller states from the larger states always choosing the president.

They are also wanting the popular vote to determine the election.

“We’re going to destabilize the country and inflict so much pain on peoples’ day-to-day life, so much pain on the governance of the system that people are going to clamor effectively for the easy way out which is going to be this popular vote method.”

The governors of several blue states would come out and secede and form an alliance. Obama’s private “racial justice activists” army would respond to the call to take to the streets with their destabilization power, i.e., the communists in BLM, Antifa and the Sunrise Movement. The TIP wants to fund them so they’d be responsive when called upon.

This paramilitary street muscle is part and parcel of every intelligence operation that involves a ground-up people-powered overthrow of the government. There are two ways you can overthrow a government. You can do a top-down military coup from the generals, and by the way Rosa Brooks, in January 17, 2017, the first month of Trump being in office, wrote an op-ed where she said, ‘Three ways to get rid of Trump before the 2024 election.’ This was before Trump’s first week had even transpired. But buried at the bottom of this was a fourth way which she called for, a military coup, which she acknowledged had never been done in our history and would be a black mark on our country’s legacy, but it might be necessary to stop Trump, that we might need a military coup, this coming from a high-ranking military official from the previous administration.

They want Obama's army, a street military presence, to take over federal buildings, block streets, highways and get the unions involve, so the whole country would grind to a halt and people would clamor for the different government in the way that happens in every CIA coup when economically destabilizing the country.

They will not do this while the Biden/Harris administration is still in power, and we know that much of their former momentum is no longer in place as it was in 2020. In a recent Guardian article, Rosa Brooks bemoaned the fact that they lack the same public protest power they had in 2020.

May their despotic plans fail.

Conclusion

The nation is in for a rough ride.

If you haven't voted, today is your last chance to cast a ballot for freedom, liberty, the U.S. Constitution and our unalienable Bill of Rights.

We have our battle cry.

Fight, Fight, Fight!
