

U.N. Plan For Your Mental Health

Shalom in Hebrew means peace but John 14:27 points to a different kind of peace. Healthy communities in the U.N. Plan for your Mental Health refers to a U.S. program linked to the World Health Organization (WHO), a specialized UN agency, which intends to impose its socialist uniformity on every community under the banner of peace. This global “mental health” system has nothing to do with God’s peace. Its “Shalom” is only for those who conform to the new global values and all those who refuse to compromise must be remediated.

CRADLE TO GRAVE- FEDERALIZE U.S. CHILDREN

While his father served on the Board of Directors for pharmaceutical giant Eli Lilly, President George W. Bush created the New Freedom Commission, which, of course, emboldened a whole cottage industry of mental health advocates, from psycho-pharmacologists to social workers to behaviorist educators to screen every man, woman and child in America for “mental illness. But long before that, September 30, 1971 was a dark day for America. Passage of the Brademas child development program by a vote of 186 to 183 laid the foundation for the Federal government to replace the home and for bureaucratic “experts” to replace the parents. It started out by claiming Day Care Centers were necessary and has catapulted quickly into Mental Health. Read: [The Code For Reorganizing Human Society Is: Sustainable Development]

In Bill O'Reilly's 2015 book, KILLING REAGAN, he noted that April 10-16 was proclaimed as National Mental Health week. Will the MSM acknowledge that this year? The purpose was to “seek and encourage better understanding of mental disorders and to bring “welcome hope to the mentally ill.” Meantime, his assassin John Hinckley was eight miles away in southeast Washington, D.C. finding it pays to be mentally ill. Rather than suffer a heinous punishment for his attempted assassination of the president and near murder of three other men, Hinckley was found not guilty of all the crimes by reason of insanity and then what doesn't make sense to me, on page 230 of that book, one of the first things Republican Ronald Reagan did when he came into office was to slash federal funding for the treatment of Mental Health and repealing the Mental Health System Act of 1980 signed by President Jimmy Carter which provided grants to community mental health centers which brings us to the dilemma we are in today – Homelessness.

INDUSTRIALIZED CIVILIZATION MUST FAIL

Millions of antidepressant prescriptions are written every year. Many thousands are wandering the streets in a mental stupor of madness, reaping only a fraction of the penalties of rebellion against Almighty God. Christian psychologists have redefined as mental illness all manner of behavior that Jesus, the Great Physician, diagnosed as sin. [Raed]

“I see a world of open borders, open trade and all we need,” said David Rockefeller “ is the right crisis and nations will accept the New World Order.” Could repealing the Mental Health System Act of 1980 been part of the U.N. Plan? After all , Reagan merged our education system with Russia and prospective teachers have been taught in their teacher-preparation classes for the past 35 years that “high religiosity” is akin to “intolerance” and “inflexibility,” both alleged “markers” for mental illness,” says Beverly K. Eakman in her article: Tracking Your Digital Trail where she describes innocent-seeming questionnaires, tests and surveys are increasingly being disseminated by government officials so that they have complete histories on every citizen. OPERATION HOGGWASH

As early as 1/8/2005 the San Francisco Chronicle said a U.S. study says mental illness will hit half in U.S. So in order to make that self-diagnoses quota, events like the recent one at the Parkland school in Florida must be staged. On April 4, Anthony Borges, a shooting victim was shot five times and survived was interviewed on NBC's Today Show. Another article said anger bubbled over at the funerals and yet Dan Cromer (dan.cromer@gmail.com) says: OPERATION HOGGWASH: No Death Records for the 17 Parkland victims. According to the official narrative, on February 14, 2018, a mass shooting occurred at Marjory Stoneman Douglas High School in Parkland, Florida. Seventeen people were killed and seventeen more were wounded, making it one of the world's deadliest school massacres. The perpetrator, 19-year old Nikolas Cruz, was identified by witnesses and arrested shortly afterward when he confessed, according to the Broward County Sheriff's Office. If this was indeed a staged attack, how can so many officials be so committed to deceiving the public and depriving Americans of their rights under the Constitution? [Read]

But curiously, Ancestry.com, the world's largest online history resource does not show death records for any of the seventeen victims, says Comer. This data base is a compilation of obituaries published in U.S. newspapers, collected from various online sources. For researchers, obituaries are genealogical goldmines, including information such as names, dates, places of birth and death, marriage information, and family relationships. Cromer offered Ancestry's U.S., Cemetery and Funeral Home Collection (1847-2018) to prove no one died

David Hogg who admits he was not at the school at the time of the alleged shooting but he has emerged as a leader of the protest movement. Sadly, he has shown himself to be a foul-mouthed individual with no respect for older generations. So who do we believe?

FORCING KIDS INTO A MENTAL HEALTH GHETTO

Meanwhile, Eakman says schools find every excuse to refer pupils for psychiatric counseling – an activity that usually results in prescriptions for psychiatric drugs having questionable track records. Some of them are over diagnosed. Nor is the drugging of Americans limited to children. This new hyper-invasive nature of technology is a distraction also for the elderly. In 2006, a local Statesman Journal reporter wrote this new technology is driving us nuts. Phones ringing, e-mails arriving at the computer, and, of course, since then, iPhones, Facebook Google, etc. While the so-called “experts” indicate disorders often start in young people and go untreated for years, this new technology is the cause of “mental illness” in the elderly and in 2008 we learned that the Veterans Administration lured exhausted returning veterans into lethal psychotropic drug tests. Under psychiatry’s invented criteria, there isn’t a single normal childhood behavior which doesn’t fall within the broad “symptoms” which comprise so-called “mental illness.” Some of the commonly seen psychiatric labels for children are: Attention Deficit Disorder (ADD), more recently called Attention Deficit Disorder (ADHD), Minimal brain Dysfunction (MB), Learning Disability (LD) or Impulse Disorder (ID). If, for any reason, a teacher decides there is a problem with a particular child, there is no way the child can escape “diagnosis.” Labeling the child insane takes blame away from incompetent teacher. In addition, a student’s values must be unfrozen via values clarification by change agents teachers, those disagreeing with the need for “common values (those values we all have in common) will be labeled as in need of mental health services, because they will be identified as having “oppositional deficit disorder.” [Read]

When I first saw the picture, “same sex marriage” approved by the U.S. Supreme Court on June 26, 2015 (my 60th wedding anniversary) jumped off the page. I remembered 44 years ago amid threats and intimidation from militant homosexual pressure groups, the American Psychiatric Assn. removed homosexuality as a “diagnosable behavioral disorder.” At about the same time the spurious term “homophobia” began to circulate within the ranks of the Left. The same tactics by the homosexual community were used in the Soviet Union to “cure delusional people” who rebelled. They, too, were forcibly “cured” by psychotropic drugs of their “anti-social” attitudes.

In the book LIFTING THE VEIL, Jon Rappoport interviewed David Icke (Oct. 1997) who said by unbalancing a person’s magnetic fields and planting a highly negative thought field you can cause physical, mental and emotional illness. You can affect the way they think, you can make them go very strange in the head, you can make them become physically ill. Could this be what happened with the driver of that SUV?

ENGINEERING UNIFORMITY

The Dec. 22, 2006 SEATTLE TIMES said “Mental Health practioners say they regularly confront extreme forms of racism, homophobia and other prejudice in the course of therapy, and some patients are disabled by these beliefs. The DSM-V Diagnostic Manual that was published in 2012, sponsored by the American Psychiatric Association, according to critics comes close to pathologizing the entire American population. With government having taken full advantage of such expert opinion from the Psychiatric indujstry, tens of millions of Americans could be placed on the mental illness list for just being moody, and declared to be too active or inactive... Mandatory drugging of noncomformists, slow learners, and naughty kids is now part and parcel of a nasty and little publicized agenda to engineer uniformity of opinion without appearing blatant about it. Children, always happy to talk about themselves, are busy filling out opinion polls and surveys- especially in social studies and “health” (sex education) classes...Even toddlers are being assessed in “early childhood programs.”

FACEBOOK KNOWS EVERYTHING ABOUT YOU

There was a time in this country when the American people valued privacy. Future generations, however, may never have a private moment as the world becomes increasingly open and connected thanks to new advance in technology. Recently we’ve learned that Facebook and Google now collect extraordinary amounts of data regarding their users, and the thing they know about people is truly amazing. A report published by TechCrunch on March 23, 2018, puts it bluntly. “Facebook knows literally everything about you,” the headline declares. Facebook not only saves every thought and picture you share and every message you send while on their website, but they also track other websites you visit, too.

Google already has the ability to track the movements and whereabouts of Smartphone users who use the operating system known as Android and Google has also partnered with the United States Department of Defense to develop artificial intelligence for use with drones. The program, which is called “Project Maven,” allows drones to accurately detect and identify objects in thirty-eight categories while also tracking the movements of individuals and yet we still haven’t been told about Barack Obama’s background. He remains the unanswered mystery of the century.

It will be interesting to see what they put in Obama’s “library” about his early years. For example, we know that Andrew Jackson’s wife smoked a corn cob pipe and was accused of adultery; Abe Lincoln never went to school; Jack Kennedy wore a back brace, Harry Truman played the piano, we all know about JFK's magnetism, and quite a few details about Bill Clinton's exploits before and during his White House years are well known. That's why it's so odd that not one lady has stepped up and said, "He was sooo shy..." or "What a great dancer." No, what caused this mysterious illegal immigrant to be elected president not once but twice was White Guilt. [\[Read\]](#)

I was reminded of Italian Antonio Gramsci's advice to his communist friends to stop picking on the American Capitalists, but instead concentrate on America's culture. On the 60th anniversary of Orwell's 1984, literary experts concluded his book was a condemnation of the Soviet Union's Joseph Stalin, but really out-of-control socialism. With Gramsci's plan to attack the culture rather than Capitalism, we found Hugh Hefner & the Homosexual Sexual Revolution. With a messianic fervor, "Hef's PLAYBOY took its message of sexual freedom to the American male, who, in the 1950s' and 1960s, still consecrated sex for marriage. The similarity between the PLAYBOY and homosexual ideal is no coincidence. "The Kinsey Report" (1948) shaped current mainstream attitudes to sex. It championed unfettered sexual expression and became the manifesto of the counterculture and sexual revolution. Kinsey said that deviant and unhealthy sexual behavior was so common as to be normal.
