

Unanswered Mystery Of The Century: Barack Hussein Obama

Is he or isn't he an American? What did he do in Indonesia during his youth from two through 12 years? What did he become? Where did he attend college in America? With whose money? Who were his girlfriends? Why doesn't anyone remember him in high school or college?

Why are all his school, work, travel, law and college records sealed against and away from the American people? Why no pictures of his marriage?

A reader prompted me to repeat these question about Barack Obama. His eight years in the White House accomplished little. He broke the U.S. Constitution with his DACA executive order and many more.

A union man from Chicago asked these questions:

In a country where we take notice of many, many facets of our public figures' lives, doesn't it seem odd that there's so little we know about Barack Obama?

For example, we know that Andrew Jackson's wife smoked a corn cob pipe and faced adultery accusations; Abe Lincoln never attended school; Jack Kennedy commenced an affair with Marilyn Monroe and a 19-year-old intern. Harry Truman played the piano.

We enjoy knowing details about our news makers, but none of us know one single humanizing fact about the history of Obama.

We know about the lack of incontestable birth records for Obama; that document managing: spectacularly successful. And yes, no record of his Selective Service registration. Additionally, we know his Social Security Card remains a total fraud.

Several additional oddities in Obama's history appear to be as well managed as the birthing issue.

One other interesting thing: no birth certificates of his daughters can be found.

No one who ever dated him ever speaks up. The charisma that caused women to be drawn to him so strongly during his campaign, certainly would in the normal course of events, lead some lady to come forward, if only to garner some attention for herself. We all know about JFK's magnetism, that McCain was no monk and quite a few details about Palin's courtship, Joe Biden's aneurysms; look at Cheney and Clinton, we all know about their heart problems. Wild Bill Clinton's exploits before and during his White House years: well known. That's why it's so odd that not one lady steps forward with, "He was soooo shy..." or "What a great dancer..."

It's virtually impossible to know anything about Obama. Best man at his wedding? Start there. Then check groomsmen. Then get the footage of the graduation ceremony. Has anyone talked to the professors? Odd that no one brags that they knew him or taught him or lived with him!

When did he meet Michelle? Any photos? Every president gives the public all their photos for their library. None released for Obama. And who voted for him to be the most popular man in 2010? Do you wonder?

Ever wonder why no one ever came forward from Obama's past saying they knew him, attended school with him or smoked dope with him.

Very, Very Strange

To those who voted for him, you elected an unqualified, inexperienced shadow man. Have you watched a movie titled, "The Manchurian Candidate?"

As insignificant as each of us might be, someone with whom we attended school will remember our name or face; someone will remember we were the clown or the dork or the brain or the quiet one or the bully or something about us.

George Stephanopoulos of ABC News said the same thing during the 2008 campaign.

He questions why no one acknowledged Obama attending their classrooms or ate in the same cafeteria or made impromptu speeches on campus. Stephanopoulos maintained his status as a classmate of Obama at Columbia – the class of 1984. Stephanopoulos never shared a single class with him.

Since Obama gave soaring oratory, why doesn't anyone in Obama's college classes remember him? Why won't he allow Columbia to release his records? Nobody remembers Obama at Columbia University. Or Harvard for that matter!

Looking for evidence of Obama's past, Fox News contacted 400 Columbia University students from the period when Obama claims to have been there... but none remembered him.

Wayne Allyn Root, like Obama, became a political science major at Columbia who also graduated in 1983. In 2008, Root says of Obama, "I don't know a single person at Columbia who knew him, and they all know me. I don't have a classmate who ever knew Barack Obama at Columbia, ever."

Nobody recalls him. Root added that he, like Obama, became the Class of '83 in Political Science, and says, "You don't get more exact or closer than that."

Never met him in my life, don't know anyone who ever met him. At class reunion, our 20th reunion five years ago. No one ever heard of Barack!

Obama's photograph does not appear in the school's yearbooks and Obama consistently declines requests to talk about his years at Columbia, provide school records, or provide the name of any former classmates or friends while at Columbia. Nothing about his Harvard years!

Some other interesting questions:

1. Why was Obama's law license inactivated in 2002? No record of him ever taking the Bar exam!

2. Why was Michelle's law license inactivated by court order? We understand that it was forced to avoid fraud charges.

The Social Security number he uses now originated in Connecticut where he never lived. And Obama's SS Card originally registered to another man (Thomas Louis Wood) from Connecticut, died in Hawaii while on vacation.

Social Security Numbers issue only once and never reused. No wonder all his records are sealed.

Somewhere, someone has to know SOMETHING, before he reorganized Chicago? SOMETHING! He just seemed to burst upon the scene at the 2004 Democratic Convention. ANYONE? ANYWHERE? ANYTHING?

At some point, much will come to light about this highly unqualified person who defrauded his way into the presidency of the United States by the color of his skin, but not the content of his character or his qualifications. History will show us how badly Obama duped us with much help from his minions and nearly brought this greatest nation in history to its knees.

Obama's legacy: a man who accomplished little before reaching the White House, very little during the White House years, and next to nothing beyond that time for the rest of his life.

What do you think as an American citizen?
