

Vote for Who We Say, or Else?

By Lex Greene

September 25, 2023

I've been voting in Presidential elections for over forty years now and the entire time, I've listened to Americans complain about being forced to vote for the "lesser of two evils." I've watched so-called "independent" voters pack their bags to leave their political parties in disgust at how both major parties have worked against their constituents, no matter what they say at campaign time.

What's the old saying, "insanity is when you keep doing the same things, while expecting a different outcome"...? If leaving the two competitive parties for independent status could solve the problem, the problem would have been solved long ago. So-called "independent" voters are the single largest voting bloc in the USA, but they don't really vote independently. More than 90% still vote republican or democrat.

Like it or not, politics is a team sport. Nationally, only two teams are competitive. If you're not on one of those two teams, you're not even in the game. When people leave these two parties, they don't unite in any 3rd party alternative. Instead, they scatter to the wind in over 70 failed "3rd party" fantasy teams, or stand alone on their little island, incapable of affecting any change at all.

I'm not telling you this because I love either of the two parties. I'm telling you this because it's the truth and only the truth can set us free.

Clearly, neither party wanted Donald J. Trump to ever be President of the United States. Both parties have worked together to destroy Trump since the day he came down the escalator to announce his bid for the Oval Office in 2015. Both parties are behind the myriad of false accusations and failed prosecutions of Trump, simply designed to prevent him from occupying the Oval Office again.

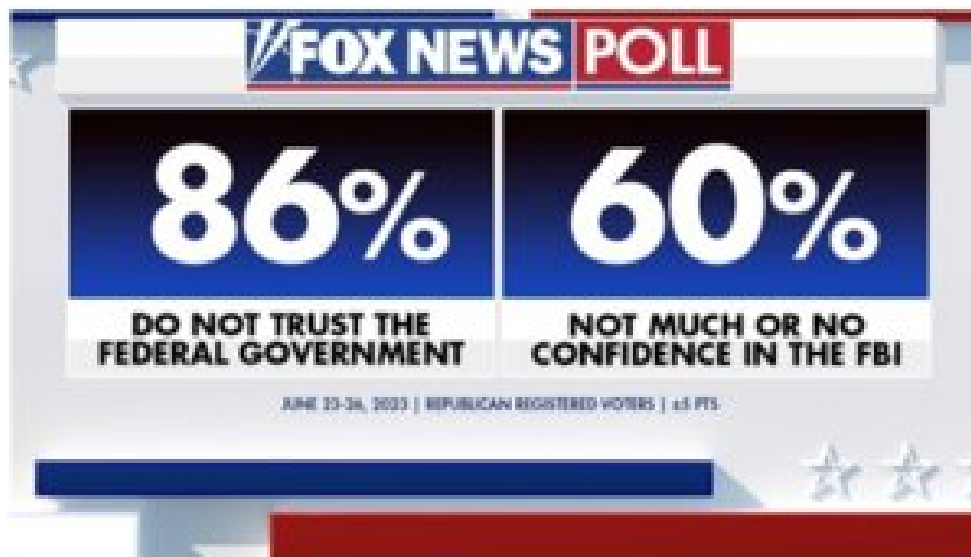

Where I come from, whomever the anti-American criminal global Marxist cabal hates and fears, is my kind of candidate. In a recent Fox News survey, despite the networks blatant efforts to work with both parties to advance any candidate but Trump for the 2024 GOP nomination, Trump remains the clear indisputable choice of the People.

Don't you love it when a corrupt politician redefines old words for you, to suit their own agenda? Most popular and populist is two different things... Trump is by far the "most popular" political figure alive today. That doesn't make him a "populist."

Understand, every 2024 GOP challenger to Trump is there to help democrats in both parties keep Trump out of office. None of them have any chance at all of beating Trump for the nomination unless they figure out how to keep Trump off the ballot altogether.

According to the Fox survey, Trump currently leads the field with 60% voter support. DeSantis still sits in a declining distant 2nd place with 13% support, and WEF Young Global Leader Ramaswamy in 3rd place with 11% support. The three “frontrunners” hold 84% support with Haley, Scott and Pence holding only 11% combined.

That's simply because the vast majority of American Citizens no longer trust the federal government or anyone at the helm today.

In 2016, Trump was the sure-to-be winner just because the People were sick and tired of everyone else in politics. Trump won 11 million more votes in 2020 than in 2016. He's now above 60% in the 2024 GOP primary race, which isn't much of a race at all, despite unprecedented weaponized government and mass media supported attacks on the man and his family.

And THAT is why the D.C. cabal is determined to keep Trump off the 2024 ballot by any means necessary. Meanwhile, Democrat Party support is totally collapsing under the O'Biden dictatorship.

Here's what YOU (aka WE THE PEOPLE) can and MUST do about it!

This is the worst time in U.S. history to be divided and/or undecided. There's no wrong time to do the right thing!

While a majority of Americans have been gaslighted into a fetal position, sucking their thumbs, and praying for “someone else to do something” while they sit on the sidelines whining about the condition of things, some will make the stand for all posterity.

We must begin by refusing to allow the Republican Party to dictate who we can and cannot vote for. This practice within party leadership has nearly destroyed the real American Party in the USA, but it’s OUR fault. We let them dictate candidates via tightly controlled primaries, and they always dictate candidates we don’t want.

This time, WE can dictate the Presidential nominee for 2024 and they cannot stop us from doing it.

Take a moment to read, download, sign, send and share the 2024 People’s Pledge for the 2024 GOP Presidential nomination. CLICK HERE It must be sent to the Republican National Committee in D.C., and your State Republican Party well in advance of each state primary.

Either WE control the nomination process, or they will. It’s either OUR party, or theirs. STOP being dictated to!
