

Voter fraud? Thank Howard Baker

Luke 12:2 For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known. 3 Therefore whatsoever ye have spoken in darkness shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets shall be proclaimed upon the housetops.

I believe Donald Trump is quite right in his tweet that Cruz didn't win Iowa, he illegally stole it via fraudulent actions. Ted Cruz is not going to stop his lies and activities because he wants the White House. There are numerous stories  of vote fraud as well, mostly on the Democratic side, but questions have arisen.

It has become abundantly clear to the grassroots Republicans that the GOPe is not on the side of the American people. Ryan's $1.1 trillion Omnibus bill, giving everything to Obama that he wanted, should tell the people where they stand. The GOP asked us for the House, and the voters worked to give it to them, they asked us for the Senate and again, the voters worked to give it to them, all for naught. Nothing has changed because they are complicit with the left in the same agenda. Anyone who believes that Ted Cruz or Marco Rubio are any different is still drinking the Kool-Aid of the Republican lies.

Mitch McConnell (and the DC Cartel) set up the Super-PAC and actually funded Ted Cruz in Iowa, and attacked Donald Trump. And we're to believe that Cruz is an outsider?! In the February 4, 2016 edition of the Wall Street Journal,  the title was, "Ted Cruz Says Voters Don't Want Attacks—Then Takes Aim at Donald Trump."

It appears that the GOPe wants Rubio as president, but when Trump jumped into the fray, this created a big block of votes, and the GOPe felt it had to be split. They seem to feel they need to keep Ted in the race for now to hold down the Trump coalition.

Plans to Derail Trump

The Conservative Treehouse documents in detail how the GOPe plan was working as predicted, and how Mr. Trump has thrown a wrench into all their plans. The establishment had to modify everything they were doing when The Donald showed up. Levin, Limbaugh, Beck, Barton, Fox News, and the rest of them are all in on it. With Rand Paul and Santorum dropping out, weight will be thrown behind Cruz first, and then Rubio.

Back in 2012, I wrote a three-part article on Santorum, and was utterly disgusted with what I found out about him and his voting record. Had Donald Trump known what Santorum had done to veterans at the Armed Forces Retirement Home, I highly doubt he would have allowed him on the stage with him during the veteran's rally.

Let's take a look at what Cruz is doing in South Carolina. Remember too that Senator Tim Scott has endorsed Rubio. The GOPe is busy trying to oust The Donald, and even those we thought might be true to conservative values are NOT. Mr. Trump actually supported Tim Scott for his Senate race, and Scott had a wonderful interview with Trump a while back. So, for Scott to support "gang of eight" anchor baby Rubio, shows how the GOPe is working hard to oust the one who is not part of their globalist cabal. Oh yes, and Rubio endorsed Mitch McConnell for re-election.

Don't you just love these establishment buddies and how they stick together?! McCain, Schumer, (another politician on Soros' payroll), and Rubio...bipartisan efforts to destroy America. One of Rubio's close confidants is Cesar Conda who has served as his Chief of Staff. Conda is an amnesty zealot and worked as an editor for George Soros, the nation's chief amnesty supporter. [Link] Fox News' Vice President, Bill Sammon's daughter, Brooke, is Marco Rubio's national Press Secretary.

✘ Gang of Eight

Conservative Tree House tells what Ted Cruz is now doing in South Carolina. One of their readers sent in this information:

"I live in SC, and I received a call from TPC Polling – a push poll against Trump.

The last two questions came after I identified Trump as my candidate. They (recording) asked something about how Trump wanted to work with Putin, and "was that a good idea"?

Then they asked the slanderous question, saying that Trump wants to close veteran-owned small businesses because they made the neighborhood look bad, and does that make me very angry, a little angry, or not angry at all.

After that, the call disconnected.

It would appear Senator Ted Cruz's campaign is picking up in South Carolina right where his campaign left off in Iowa – same tactics.

Kellyanne Conway has claimed the TPC Polling was not her organization, and she's right. Conservative Tree House has stated that it is not Kellyanne Conway's organization. Her organization was not responsible for this push poll. There is another organization called Target Point Consulting, but we're not sure they were the push poll organization either. Our apologies to Kellyanne's organization.

If you read my last article, you understand why the New York Times Co. v. Sullivan Supreme Court decision allows media and public figures to get away with these types of lies, especially when Trump supports the veterans and has for decades.

Lack of Discernment

Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves. For by their fruits ye shall know them! How sad it is that today's Christians haven't the discernment of a dead fish. They listen to the lies spewed by Cruz and believe them without doing any research on the candidates whatsoever. Of course, the pulpits are to blame, for even the pastors do not do due diligence on the candidates, much less God's Word. If someone claims they're a Christian, they all believe it without asking any questions. Obviously Cruz's duplicitous and fraudulent actions are certainly not those of a true Christian.

Republican Howard Baker and Vote Fraud

There are any number of vote fraud reports in the Iowa Caucus of 2016, and many are even questioning Rubio's votes placing him third. Why? Because Microsoft is Rubio's number two corporate donor and has been for the last five years. [Link] Suspect? I think so. In today's world, there are no coincidences.

Have you ever wondered where all this voter fraud originated? Oh yes, there have been oodles of stories about how the machines can be manipulated. Votes can be misrecorded, boxes stuffed, destruction or invalidation of ballots, hardware and software tampered with...there's dozens of ways to cheat the public and destroy a candidate.

And then there are double deals. That's where Republican Howard Baker got together with Democrat, former KKK member, Robert Byrd, and Baker's sellout is still haunting America!

Throughout the nation there are over 25 million invalid voter registrations which have not been removed by competent authorities. Among America's registered voters, 1,800,000 have been proven to be dead. Each of these situations provides opportunity for fraud by the party who survives on voter fraud. In Maryland, dead people have registered and voted after their death. Over 2,750,000 people are registered to vote in two states. (Many elderly will remember the countless dead folk in Illinois who voted for John F. Kennedy and won him the election.)

There is ample proof that twelve Indiana counties have more registered voters than residents. This is also the case in many counties in Ohio. Across the country, there are at least 160 counties spread over nineteen states that have more registered voters than residents.

Most aware Americans know about these breaches, only because of the diligent work of volunteers eager to help the RNC fight back. Since 1982, the RNC has been quiet, but they too are culpable. Their goal is to always elect one of their own establishment hacks.

This agreement between Baker and Byrd came about because Democrats in New Jersey, arguably one of the most corrupt states in America, complained that Republicans had been investigating voter fraud in predominantly minority districts. Among the specific charges was that off-duty police officers posted themselves at polling places to help insure voting integrity. [Link]

Incredibly, Baker agreed that "Ballot Security" should be defined as "any program aimed at combating voter fraud by preventing voters from registering to vote or casting a ballot." Thus, ANYTHING Republicans do to stop Democrat voter fraud in any organized fashion can and is labeled "Ballot Security" to get federal judges to end it.

☒ Fortunately, this agreement does not bind GOP state committees; and it will expire on December 1, 2017. Let's hope the Republican minority leader at that time has more brains than Howard Baker did, but I won't hold my breath.

The GOP sellout started a long, long time ago.

Conclusion

The New York Times v. Sullivan decision of the Supreme Court of 1964 basically said the right to publish all statements, whether true or false is covered by the first amendment. Thus, today newspapers and media and fellow politicians can lie through their teeth about others with no repercussions of libel suits. This is how Cruz gets away with doing the rotten phone push polls, lying about Carson leaving the race, and putting out flyers in Iowa that tell people they are in danger of violations if they don't vote.

Voter fraud exists because fawned over, traitorous, Tennessee Senator Howard Baker, sold out the party and the American people. The only way we can counter it is to be precinct workers and watch everything very closely.

Donald Trump has a huge fight on his hands. He needs to come out with both barrels blazing now because the Cruz fanatics will use any subversive and underhanded tactic they can to get the votes.

To say I'm appalled that preachers actually believe Cruz is an orthodox Christian would be an understatement.

There is only one hope, and anyone with any discernment and ability to research and read, knows it is the true outsider, businessman, Donald Trump.
