

Voting Every Two Years Won't Cure the Cancer

Just about all the attention right now is being directed at President Trump and his bid for reelection.

The howling and screeching from the 20+ candidates for the Democratic/Communist Party USA is relentless. A collective body of political whores who will promise anything, and I mean anything, to become the DNC candidate at their convention.

Protect murderers, rapists and diseased illegals invading this country is high on their agenda. They care NOTHING about the victims. Just sickening but goes on every damn day:

Millionaire, Bernie Sanders, continues to push his poison and love for socialism which has failed in every country on earth. Free college tuition paid for with the sweat off your back. Free health care for all!

The braying asses pushing to forgive student debt forget one important thing. Well, two actually. First of all, college is elective not mandatory. No one forces anyone to go to college – except parents pushing unqualified kids into college.

Paying for college is the individual's responsibility. When a person signs documents for a student loan (federal or state) it is a binding contract to repay the debt. Just like when you purchase a car or home.

Second. Congress has ZERO constitutional authority to fund the unconstitutional Federal Department of Education. ZERO. We had the finest education system in this country until education was hijacked from states and local governments.

A cabinet that sucks down close to $100 BILLION BORROWED dollars a year with over 4,400 employees. All unconstitutional as are student loans. Congress has never had any authority to loan money to individuals directly or through any cabinet or agency.

States DO NOT have to genuflect at the altar of the DOE. They can refuse those so-called federal dollars. Remember this: You and I already pay property taxes for schools in our cities and towns. Yes, there are a handful of counties in Texas who have no property taxes. But, most counties in the U.S. do.

If you live in a state with a state personal income tax (nine states like Texas do not have a state personal income tax), you are once again raped to pay for dumbing down America's school children. All the states do allocate money to local school districts from things like sales taxes.

And in states like California, you are forced to fund MANDATORY classes (no opt out) teaching little boys it's normal and healthy when they grow up to have sex in another man's sh*t. It's wonderful to be gay!

The Feds then dole back chunks to states with more strings attached than a tank of spaghetti. All with a diabolical agenda attached.

"I am convinced that the battle for humankind's future must be waged and won in the public classroom by teachers that correctly perceive their role as proselytizers of a new faith which will replace the rotting corpse of Christianity." -John J. Dunphy, Humanist Magazine, January-February 1983

Then along came the pimps called teacher's unions whose agenda for decades has been the dumbing down of American's children and grooming them into mindless robots. I highly recommend the book and column below:

I am a part-time substitute teacher and I can't tell you how absolutely delighted I was last year over at the high school. Right across the hall from my classroom and down the walls were big posters warning students about student loans and debt. Well done graphics and excellent bullet points. Bravo!

Students are coming out of college under educated and drowning in student loans. Doesn't anyone ever wonder why college tuition shot through the roof after that cabinet came into being?

Why, it's simple. Colleges and universities suddenly discovered they had YOUR blank checkbook at their disposal courtesy of the prostitutes in Congress. More money for education! Every child deserves a college education paid for by YOU!

If there were no longer all those loans, America's young folks would not graduate buried in so much debt. They would attend a college they could afford. All those graduates have to look forward to is despair trying to pay off huge school loans while working at McDonald's.

Make it go away. Without your checkbook, colleges and universities would have to compete in the market place to attract qualified students. Let the free market work and you will see a huge adjustment in tuition.

Flashback from one of my columns:

November 18, 2010. Dunbar seeks to nullify federal education laws

“Outgoing State Board of Education member Cynthia Dunbar offered a “parting gift” to her fellow board members in the form of a resolution declaring the U.S. Department of Education an unconstitutional bureaucracy with no authority to impose restrictions upon Texas or its school districts.

“No action was taken Thursday on Dunbar’s resolution, which states that education policy is outside the purview of the federal government granted by the U.S. Constitution so federal legislation addressing education is for naught.

“Therefore, the Education Department “shall be put on notice that any such unconstitutional directives given by it to the Texas State Board of Education will be met with the principle of nullification and the clear admonition of ‘Don’t Mess with Texas!’”

“Nullification is the legal theory that a state may deem invalid any federal law that the state finds unacceptable or unconstitutional. Most legal scholars maintain that nullification is unconstitutional.

“But Dunbar, who decided not to seek re-election to a second term, is an assistant professor of law at Liberty University School of Law and has more than once used her own knowledge of the U.S. Constitution to make a point through board policy.

“The resolution could be considered in January, when the 15-member board, including its five new members, next meets.”

Most legal scholars maintain nullification is unconstitutional? Really? This is a MUST read because the aforementioned legal ‘scholars’ apparently have no idea the history and birthing of this constitutional republic:

"Memorandum for Walter Zellman from Sallyanne Payton, clearly marked: Preliminary Draft for Official Use Only. Do Not Quote or Release For Any Purpose, page 4, Health Care Task Reform under Hillary Clinton:. Please note these sections:

"(b) may the federal government use other actors in the governmental system and the private sector as its agents and give them orders as though they were parts of a prefectorial system? The short answer is "no." State governments are independent, although subordinated, sovereignties, not subdivisions of the federal government.

"Although the federal government may regulate many of their functions directly [as well, for example, it subjects state water districts to the Clean Water Act], it may not require them to exercise their own governmental powers in a manner dictated by federal law. The states may be encouraged, bribed or threatened into entering into joint federal state programs of various sorts, from unemployment insurance to Medicaid; but they may not be commanded directly to use their own governmental apparatus in the service of federal policy. There is a modest jurisprudence of the Tenth Amendment that seems to have settled on this proposition. See the DOJ [Dept. of Justice] memorandum for a fuller elaboration."

What does this have to do with voting every two years?

IF YOU KEEP VOTING BACK THE SAME INCUMBENTS TO YOUR STATE CAPITOLS, GOVERNORS AND CONGRESS WHO IGNORE THEIR OATH OF OFFICE AND ARE DESTROYING THIS COUNTRY – WHY WOULD YOU THINK ANYTHING WILL CHANGE?

GOP Incumbents Will Betray America End of Year, Feb. 2014; my column. And, they did. Just like the Democrats. Republicans just package their poison in different wrapping.

Are Americans Really This Stupid? June 2012; my column.

“In mid-2007, the housing market crash predicted by many and ignored by tens of millions “suddenly” became a raging path of destruction across this country. By summer 2008, panic set in and the thieves in the U.S. Congress literally stole the fruits of your labor to unconstitutionally bail out banks and the auto industry. Without a scintilla of constitutional authority, the federal mafia bled us dry while 401(k)s bled in millions of households.

“Americans got angry. They said we will hold you responsible in November 2010!

“Sure, they did. With an approval rating of 11% for the gangsters in the Outlaw Congress, a whopping 86% of incumbents were sent back to Washington, DC., after the 2010 elections to continue stealing us blind and passing more and more unconstitutional laws while allowing alphabet soup agencies like the FDA, EPA and USDA to continue running amok. I suppose one could say it was an improvement over the usual 96% reelection stats for incumbents.

“Great fanfare went on though over the success of getting tea party candidates elected. Newbies who said all the right things while saying nothing. A new set of Band Aid pushers who have yet to understand the critical issues destroying this country: the disabilities of our monetary system, heavy progressive taxation, unconstitutional foreign aid, getting the US out of the UN; the list goes on and on. They just keep on voting for unconstitutional funding while saying the latest flavor of what appeals to voters.”

Republicans allegedly took a blood bath in November 2018. Don't believe it for a second. Vote fraud is the key to the game played by the Unseen Hand. With Trump in office the only way to hog tie his hands was to make sure the U.S. House went back to a Democrat majority.

As I wrote several months ago, the November 2020 election begins in a few short months with the primaries. Either YOU get out there and work to get a challenger elected (as we did in our recent mayor's race) or we will end up with the same "hold your nose and vote" syndrome come November 2020.

There are but a handful of individuals in Congress who should get reelected in my personal opinion. No, none of them have picked up where former Congressman Ron Paul left off in trying to abolish the unconstitutional Federal Reserve Banking Act.

But, most of those I would reelect are trying if you look at their voting records on the issues. As for the Fed, it's too late. We have passed the point of no return; the debt bubble is exploding while Americans diddle on their electronic gadgets.

In the senate, keep Tim Scott, Rand Paul, Martha McSally, Marsha Blackburn and Bill Cassidy. The rest need to go. On the house side, keep:

Andy Biggs, Mo Brooks, Matt Gaetz, Louis Gohmert, Jim Jordan, Mark Meadows, Devan Nunes, Steve Scalise. And, Rep. Thomas Massie from the great State of Kentucky. If I had my way, Trump would put Massie as his new VP for 2020 and Massie would go on to win the presidency in 2024. That man is for America and the U.S. Constitution.

Massie is the most constitutionally grounded Rep. in the U.S. House. He continues to introduce constitutional legislation that dies every damn session – even when Republicans held the majority.

Stop double taxing social security benefits. Get rid of the unconstitutional EPA. Abolish the unconstitutional Federal Department of Education. Get us out of the world government cabal UN. DC Personal Protection Reciprocity Act. List of his

bills.

Congressman Massie's 500-Yard Run That is Driving Congress Crazy – Totally cool.

THIS IS YOUR Congress critter and how they violate their oath of office and have bankrupted this country. We ARE going over the cliff. Low unemployment gets all the headlines but believe me when I tell you – the bubble is bursting just like 2008 only much worse and Trump will get blamed.

Sadly, I would say, too many Americans who actually know what's going on are too busy to fight for freedom and liberty. Let someone else make the effort. Let someone else get out and knock on doors for a challenger. Let someone else do what all adult Americans should be doing and that is being part of the solution.

Self-governing means just that and voting every two November's will never cure the cancer. It's WHO you continue to vote back into office starting with the primaries.

In closing I am encouraged by the number of people who sent email after my column on Trump's GMO EO. Two people declared their candidacy for their local county commissioner seats and are determined, if elected, to get GMOs banned in their counties. Just like those six counties have done in Commie California. They won and all Californians benefit.

One individual declared for sheriff and four declared their candidacy for their local school boards. These Americans have decided what's important and what can wait in life.

Bravo! All politics are local. Those individuals are willing to sacrifice their time and likely some of their own money to run for office. They will make new friends; new enemies who hate this country or who don't want to upset the 'good old boy' mentality all over this country.

But candidates can't do it without your support in your county or district. THAT is a fact. And, if a constitutionalist loses, there must be a forensic examination of the ballots, machines and scanners because I damn straight guarantee you as someone on the vote fraud issue since 1993 – stealing our elections is the name of the game.

But, most of all, they can look in the mirror every night and say I tried. I will not give up my country and will fight for my family and the American way no matter how hard the journey.

How about you?

The window for being a congressional candidate is closing fast. You must register with the FEC (Federal Elections Commission) after you are ballot qualified. First you have to go through the hoops with your Secty of State.

If you don't know who is running against your incumbent, call your state Secretary of State Elections division or go on line. All candidates must be registered.
