

War Fever in Washington

House Republicans released their articles of impeachment against Homeland Security Secretary Alejandro Mayorkas on Sunday, the same day Biden's war with Iran escalated.

It appears the Republicans should be targeting the "Commander-in-Chief" in name only for the immediate impeachment. Tell Mayorkas to wait his turn.

My updated column, Another Impeachable Offense from Biden, looks at his war with Iran, already resulting in hundreds of casualties and the deaths of two Navy SEALs, before the latest attack from Iran.

"Have no doubt – we will hold all those responsible to account at a time and in a manner our choosing," the bumbling fool of a President named Biden said Sunday. He doesn't inspire confidence.

The American people are waiting for the time when they choose, assuming the November presidential election is not rigged this time around.

Biden's sickly Defense Secretary issued a statement, saying, "The President and I will not tolerate attacks on American forces, and we will take all necessary actions to defend the United States, our troops, and our interests."

Politically, Biden is trying to look presidential, a "War President," as Americans naturally rally behind their nation and its soldiers.

Biden is not a coward. He will use military force in a reckless manner. Republicans are cowards for encouraging the fool Biden to get the United States into another war.

Senator Lindsey Graham says, "I am calling on the Biden Administration to strike targets of significance inside Iran, not only as reprisal for the killing of our forces, but as deterrence against future aggression." But his statement fails to demand a congressional Declaration of War before this occurs.

If they want a war with Iran, let the Congress declare it. We all know that Biden appeased Iran before and that, suddenly, he has decided to retaliate for its aggression. No wonder he doesn't inspire confidence and soldiers are dying.

We are waiting for another generation of wounded warriors.

"This brazen attack on the United States is yet another horrific and tragic consequence of Joe Biden's weakness and surrender," Trump said about the attack that killed 3 soldiers and wounded dozens more. "This terrible day is yet more proof that we need an immediate return to PEACE THROUGH STRENGTH, so that there will be no more chaos, no more destruction, and no more loss of precious American lives. Our Country cannot survive with Joe Biden as Commander in Chief."

He's right. So why are some Republicans calling on Biden to wage war on Iran without a congressional declaration of war?

Remember this is the same Joe Biden who is constitutionally mandated to execute faithfully the laws and yet has ignored the law and allowed an invasion of the border over the last three years.

The facts are clear. Iran is waging war on the United States, just as it is doing so with Israel. But war with Iran doesn't solve the problem.

The invasion of Ukraine was made in Moscow, and the invasion of Israel was also planned there. Anybody who disputes this fact doesn't understand the reality of Soviet/Russian communism and the work of the KGB.

And the war with Iran was made in Moscow, too.

To understand what has been planned, I suggest the report, Communists and Muslims: The Hidden Hand of the KGB, by Konstantin Preobrazhensky, a former KGB officer.

The next ominous steps in the Middle East were outlined in our book Red Jihad, as Russia and its client state Iran work to force the Jewish state to abandon its last line of defense, its own nuclear arsenal, in return for "peace" in the Middle East.

But as we warned in our book, if pushed to disarm or turn over its nuclear arsenal to the United Nations, or an international body or coalition, the ultimate "Final Solution" may come to Israel.

In the immediate term, Biden wants Israel to accept another Muslim state on its borders, able to import weapons from Iran and Russia and China.

Now, if Biden strikes Iran directly without Congressional approval, dragging the United States further into a war, he should be impeached. The Mayorkas impeachment should be put on the back burner for now.
