

What Goes Around Comes Around

by Servando Gonzalez

January 18, 2022

On January 6, 2021, a bunch of well-intentioned fools, most likely incited by agent provocateurs infiltrated in their ranks, tried to have a good time destroying a few things of their own property –the Capitol building belongs to us, the American people, not to the politicians who enjoy it. As a result of that bad joke, they were put in jail. As of today, most of the January 6 perpetrators are still in jail accused of terrorism without even having been charged for their actions. The only criminal, a coward who shot and killed an unarmed American citizen who was not a threat to him or anybody else is free enjoying a good life.

Who is to blame for this evidently un-American, un-Constitutional, illegal, immoral state of things? I propose a main culprit: George W. Bush.

Just a few hours after the September 11, 2001, events, President Bush, sporting a mischievous smile and his left hand showing the ever-present Devil's sign, accused a bunch of Arabs of terrorism, launched his War on Terror and created the Office of Homeland Security and the Transportation Security Administration. Conveniently, the laws that created such anti-American institutions had been written way before 9/11. Some people found out that most of them were very similar to laws passed by German Nazis.

Following the Nazi-like mandates established by the War of Terror directives, key members of the U.S. government, ignoring the main laws of the country, gave themselves the power to put in jail, without proof, much less a fair trial, anybody they accused of being a terrorist. At the time, most brainwashed Americans accepted this gross violation of our most essential laws and principles because the alleged terrorists were foreigners. Currently, Democrats are using exactly the same laws to put people in jail. The only difference is that now they are American citizens.

Was January 6, 2021, as some Democrats now claim, a new version of September 11, 2001? Obviously not. On Jan. 6 a government agent killed only one American. In contrast, on September 11, 2001, close to 3,000 American citizens were killed as the result of treasonous activities carried out by American agents. So, why are some key members of the Democratic faction of the Republican party now calling the January 6 bunch of fools terrorists and January 6 a 9/11? Well, when you decode the true meaning of their assertions you realize that they are just asking for fair treatment.

What Democrats are actually telling their Republican counterparts is this: We backed your lie, now is the time for you to back ours, the same way now both of us are backing the Covid lie.

Probably one of the few Republicans who properly decoded what is really going on is none other than Liz Cheney, whose father played a key role in 9/11. As a true insider, Liz knows very well the secret rules of the game.

Actually, 9/11 created the conditions for 6/21. What Biden is doing today is nothing but the logical continuation of George W. Bush's policies. The only difference, if any, is that Bush is an idiot and Biden an old guy suffering from dementia, but their puppet masters are the same.

Some gullible Republicans are still dreaming about bringing Donald Trump back to the White House. One of their main reasons, they argue, is because Trump didn't start a war. Well, if that is true, they should love Biden, because he ended a war. But I have the feeling that both of them were following orders from above, from the very people who were planning another war, a more devastating war, a war to end all wars: the present war of attrition they are waging against the American people and the peoples of the world. A war that, if successful, will cause more casualties than all of the recent wars together.

Have you asked yourselves why both "liberal" and "conservative" mouthpieces seems to be reading from the same script about the Covid "pandemic?" Don't trust me, just listen to Sean Hannity, Mark Levin, Bill O'Reilly, and Ben Shapiro, just to name a few of the more notorious ones. The reasons they are doing this is because all of them get their marching orders from the same source. Apparently, their masters have decided to give us another ration of Trump's enchiladas, high in spice but low in nutritional value. It is highly revealing that two of the strongest critics of the disastrous policies based on Fauci's advise the government is enforcing upon us are Rand Paul, a Libertarian, and Robert Kennedy, Jr., a Liberal.

So, please, my dear Republicans stop painting yourselves as the good guys with the white hats in this Western comedy American politics has turned into. Granted, Democrats are the bad guys in this film, but you Republicans are even worse.

As Albert Einstein once said, "Insanity is doing the same  thing over and over and expecting different results." Accordingly, on election day I'll do something very patriotic I have been doing for many years with excellent results: I'm going to have my siesta while you are giving your votes to Donald Trump, and I am sure I'll sleep like a baby, with a clear conscience because I am not being part of this ongoing anti-American charade.

The bottom line is that stealing elections is nothing new, but as American as apple pie. Both John F. Kennedy and George W. Bush won the by stealing their. A long time ago, the famous frontier hero David Crocket, a strong opponent of Andrew Jackson's Indian Removal policies, accused Jackson's supporters of stuffing ballot boxes during the 1801 and 1835 Tennessee Congressional elections, which Crocket lost. So, it is foolish to expect that, once they have perfected the technique, today's Democrats are going to lose the next one.

Currently, the system is so shamelessly corrupt that only major surgery can fix it. So, I would remind my fellow Republicans that when the Founding Fathers of this country faced a problem similar to the one we are facing today, they did not go to the polls to cast their votes. Far from it, they pledged to each other their lives, their fortunes and their sacred honor.

Servando's books: Psychological Warfare and the New World Order: The Secret War Against the American People , and Partners in Crime: The Rockefeller, CFR, CIA and Castro Connection to the Kennedy Assassination, are both available at the NWV store.

© 2021 Servando Gonzales – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Servando Gonzales: servandoglez05@yahoo.com