

What Happens When We Lose Our Core Identity in America

Frosty Wooldridge

This past week, Canada's Prime Minister Justin Trudeau proclaimed that his country no longer enjoys a "core identity." With his father's quest to multiculturalize Canada away from being Canadian, the son continues to immigrate our northern neighbor into a quagmire of cultures, languages and violent religions. He's succeeding, too.

Canada's large cities such as Vancouver no longer feature the Canadian flag. The Chinese dominate that city via numbers, culture and language. It's truly no longer a Canadian city. The Chinese ran out the Canadians in the past 30 years via massive chain-migration. I wouldn't put it past them to secede from Canada and make BC a Chinese state, which will import millions of Chinese.

If you visit Ottawa or Montreal, you see more people from other countries than Canadians. You hear more languages than English or French. You see that none of those immigrants assimilate into their new country, but they create replicas of their own countries known as "parallel societies."

Ironically, you see those same immigrants, especially from the Middle East, feeding at the welfare trough paid for by what remains of Canadian workers.

Since Canada no longer enjoys a “core identity” and Trudeau expects to import another 10 million third world immigrants, will Canada be able to hold itself at its center, and remain a viable civilization? It already features “honor killings, female genital mutilation, de facto Sharia Law” and a host of foreign cultures too ugly to describe.

The same loss of “core identity” rampages across Europe. You can no longer consider London, England a British city or a British society. Same with Paris, France; Munich, Germany; Amsterdam, Holland; Oslo, Norway; Brussels, Belgium; and most other major cities overwhelmed by immigration from Africa and the Middle East. Read: The Strange Death of Europe by Douglas Murray.

If you look at what’s happening to the United States, the same cultural nightmare rampages across America 24/7. We’ve got racial conflict every single newscast of the year. We’ve got Muslims creating “parallel societies” in New York City, Minneapolis and Detroit, along with Miami and Fremont, California. Do our four million Muslim immigrants identify as Americans? Not a chance! They don’t fly Old Glory anywhere in the “separate societies” where they dominate. They vote into office only officials who promise to install Sharia Law, which by the way, contradicts every freedom we enjoy in America: women’s rights, free speech, animal rights, choice of religion, choice of dress, choice of marriage partner, choice of no religion, voting rights, and choice of food.

“Islam isn’t in America to be equal to any faith, but to become dominant. The Qur’an should be the highest authority in America, and Islam the only accepted religion on Earth.” Omar Ahmed, director of Council on American Islamic Relations.

We’ve got in excess of 20 million illegal Mexicans speaking only their languages while they utilize our welfare, food stamps and free schooling for their kids with welfare lunches, paid for by your tax dollars. Do they identify as Americans?

Dream on.

Even the Chinese form their own cities in California, with their own Chinese signs and language, as well as their own shops. If you ride south of San Francisco, you will see totally dominated Chinese cities. I did last summer, and I was stunned at how “Un-American” their stances.

Again, we're about to add 110 million immigrants from 196 different countries by 2050—a scant 31 years from now. They bring 196 different world views, cultures, religions and languages.

Anybody with a brain over room temperature think we will survive such an onslaught?

“Immigrants devoted to their own cultures and religions are not influenced by the secular politically correct façade that dominates academia, news-media, entertainment, education, religious and political thinking today,” said James Walsh, former Associate General Counsel of the United States Immigration and Naturalization Service. “They claim the right not to assimilate, and the day is coming when the question will be how can the United States regulate the defiantly unassimilated cultures, religions and mores of foreign lands? Such immigrants say their traditions trump the U.S. legal system. Balkanization of the United States has begun.”

Exactly how will America remain American once that next 110 million immigrants lands on our shores? Do you think we will survive it culturally? Linguistically? As to our identity? Do you? If you do, you're smokin' some funny weed.

Think again. I've traveled through all those cities not only here, but in Canada this summer, and in Europe.

Once you lose your core identity as a country; your country cannot survive. And, you can't get your successful ethos back. A country like India lurches into each day as a mass of overpopulated, illiterate, unhealthy, conflicted citizens who don't know their identity, what culture or where they stand. That's why they flee to America. They've landed in a time and place out of their understanding. They enclave. Do you think any of the Somalians from Africa care about Thomas Jefferson, our Constitution or women's rights? Does a Muslim care about the Bill of Rights or women's rights? Oh gees!

Then, there's the accelerating nightmare of feeding, educating, finding jobs in a robotic world, keeping environmentally viable—with another 110,000,000 (million) more people. Think we're going to succeed? Think again.

I don't know about you—nonetheless, if we hope to survive this nightmare descending upon our civilization, we need to stop it while we still stand a chance.

- We need to rescind the 1965 Immigration Reform Act. Simply stop all immigration.
- If that sounds too harsh, how about “Egress Equals Ingress”? If 50,000 people leave the USA in a year, we import 50,000 with skills and viable abilities to remain off welfare.
- Stop all 300,000 anchor babies annually by amending the 14th Amendment to NOT give instant birthright citizenship to pregnant illegal alien mothers. It's costing us trillions of dollars.
- Stop 50,000 Diversity Visas given out each year. We cannot save the world, but we can destroy our country.
- Stop all visas overstays with biometric tracking technology.
- Stop all employers of illegal aliens by enforcing our laws on the books.
- Mandate E-Verify for all new employees with prohibitive finer and jail time for employers who cheat.

If don't get our elected officials to act on our behalf, we will become like Canada and Europe: No More American Identity.
