

What—No Consequences?

By Lee Duigon

It seems that no matter what they do, our Lords of Misrule never have to deal with any consequences and we're supposed to grin and bear it.

Well, some of us aren't grinning and we wonder why we have to bear it.

A few telling examples will suffice.

*The Afghanistan debacle—billions of dollars' worth of modern military equipment abandoned to the enemy. Biggest and most shameful episode in American military history—at least since the Great Skedaddle at Bull Run in the Civil War. Why is General Chilly Millie still chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff? No consequences for him! Because he says the most serious threat to American security today is “white supremacy.” Unless it's that imaginary Climbit Change they're always going on about.

I mean, gee, what does a general have to do to get fired, these days? Will he still be up there dremmeling when the Chicoms take over the White House?

*The Hunter Biden laptop scandal—which was actually about Biden family corruption... which included “the Big Guy” who is now our “president.” Ten percent for him. Why, that was nothing but “Russian disinformation”! Big Tech, Big Media, the CIA and the FBI worked feverishly together to suppress this news before the 2020 election.

Has anyone been fired over this? Has anybody gone to jail? Of course not. Grin and bear it, America!

*On the orders of the Justice Dept., Merrick Garland in charge, the FBI spied on parents who attended local school board meetings to object to local school board policies. Still grinning, everybody? How many gangsters slipped through the net because the FBI was busy spying on parents who didn't like Critical Race Theory? Parents didn't want their six-year-olds indoctrinated into aberrant sex and racial feuding—that was a crime? Of course it was: the National School Boards Assn. and the teachers' unions said so.

Why wasn't Garland impeached for this? Why wasn't he fired? Is it just because the FBI has become nothing but a bunch of henchmen doing the Democrats' dirty work for them? One hand washes the other?

*And this week we've learned that the FBI has been targeting Catholics for holding on to traditional Catholic beliefs and practices—on the word of the exuberantly Far Left “Southern Poverty Law Center.” Why, those Catholic traditionalists just must be White Supremacists—and “anti-gay,” too!

Meddling with the inner workings of America's largest Christian church—and this from the jidrools who are always claiming “separation of church and state”. The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has been inexplicably mute about this; but the public didn't like it, so the FBI, um, “retracted” the leaked memo. “Retracted” means “pretend to stop but keep on doing it anyway, when no one's looking.” Again, no one's been fired, no one's gone to jail. Religious freedom in America is just not as important as it used to be. We don't need no stinkin' freedom.

Not a peep out of the self-proclaimed “devout Catholic” in the White House. To say nothing of our former Speaker of the House, Nancy Pelosi: another “devout Catholic” on board with our lawless FBI.

What they are doing is vandalizing our republic—and they do it with impunity. They've got our national elections just the way they want them, so they can do whatever they please. All they've got to do now is silence Elon Musk and they're home free. Very awkward, all those Twitter scandals he's uncovered. But at least he's firing the bad guys. Gotta start somewhere.

How do we get our Constitution back?

I would tell you if I knew.
