

When Are You Gonna Wake Up?

by Coach Dave Daubenmire

March 23, 2023

That is the question that Bob Dylan, the voice of a generation, asked a generation ago.

You can listen to his song here.

Great question Bob. Some of us are still asking that same question today.

Those of you who read my thoughts regularly will understand that I have been singing the same song for the past couple of decades. It is now or never. Either the American Church awakens from its slumber or this nation is doomed.

Are you awake or are you, as Rush often described us, mind-numbed robots? Are you waiting for someone else to fight your fight? Are you waiting for the "Republicans" to save us? When are you gonna wake up?

The good news is there are many of us who are awakening. A sleeping giant is slowly beginning to wipe the goop from his eyes.

The question is not "has our government been lying to us?" We all know THAT answer. The question is "what are we gonna do about it?"

Knowledge is power. The Bible declares “my people are destroyed for a lack of knowledge.” Knowledge is a choice. There is nothing wrong with BEING ignorant...but there is everything wrong with STAYING ignorant.
