

Who Elected the Judge?

By Lex Greene

February 17, 2025

"Who elected Elon Musk" is the new extreme-left street mob battle cry of the defeated democrat party as they rage and incite violence in opposition to Trump reforming our federal government, eliminating massive systemic fraud and waste in D.C. on behalf of all taxpayers.

How dare the new administration attempt to audit the Executive Branch Agencies to save our country from impending bankruptcy! How dare they transparently expose decades of fraud, abuse and waste that has cost all American taxpayers their future!

Who elected Elon Musk?

A much better question is, who elected the Judge[s] that thinks they have unbridled authority over a duly elected President constitutionally assigned the duty of running the Executive Branch and all Executive Branch Agencies? The answer is...NO ONE!

For those who missed Civic's Class, all Federal Agencies are Executive Branch Agencies under the direction of the President. The President is elected by the American people to carry out the will of those who elected them. All Presidents appoint their own team members to execute the objectives of the President.

The Agencies do not fall under the command or control of the Article I Legislative Branch, or the Article III Judicial Branch. They are all Executive Branch Agencies...

So, under what constitutional authority does any unelected and unaccountable Federal Judge have the power to overrule a duly elected President and his team, related to the Administration of the Executive Branch?

Who elected the judge[s] as an unbridled dictator over the duly elected President and his duly appointed team? No one did...they are all partisan political appointees.

For far too long now, our Federal Courts have pretended to be unelected dictatorships, oligarchies, and legislatures. No branch is more responsible for the undermining and destruction of our Constitutional Republic and all Natural Rights of the People, from whom all political power is derived, including the limited power of the courts.

Thomas Jefferson saw the judicial disaster coming almost immediately following the adoption of the Constitution in 1787, in particular on the heels of Marbury v. Madison \(1803\), wherein the court declared itself the final arbiter of what is and isn't "constitutional," a ruling intentionally abused by the courts as well, ever since.

"Nothing in the Constitution has given them [the federal judges] a right to decide for the Executive, more than to the Executive to decide for them. . . . The opinion which gives to the judges the right to decide what laws are constitutional and what not, not only for themselves, in their own sphere of action, but for the Legislature and Executive also in their spheres, would make the Judiciary a despotic branch."
(Jefferson Letter to Abigail Adams, September 11, 1804)

"The judiciary of the United States is the subtle corps of sappers and miners constantly working under ground to undermine the foundations of our confederated fabric. They are construing our constitution from a co-ordination of a general and special government to a general and supreme one alone. This will lay all things at their feet, and they are too well versed in English law to forget the maxim, 'boni judicis est ampliare jurisdictionem' [good judges have ample jurisdiction]. . . . A judiciary independent of a king or executive alone, is a good thing; but independence of the will of the nation is a solecism, at least in a republican government." (Jefferson Letter to Thomas Ritchie, Dec. 25, 1820)

Elon Musk has been duly appointed by the duly elected President of the United States to carry out a critical objective of the Executive Branch, under the authority of the Chief Executive, in accordance with the Article II powers of the Presidency. To refer to this as a "constitutional crisis" is a blatant lie. This is exactly how our Constitutional Republic is supposed to function, as opposed to the "mob-rule" tactics of today's democrats.

For well over a hundred years now, Americans have been taxed into poverty, while our government could never live inside the confines of a budget they haven't even bothered to pass since 1998 via Clinton and Gingrich. Congress has not passed a legitimate constitutional budget since, driving the nation deeper and deeper in debt via "continuing resolution" spending bills.

Today, our country is almost $37-trillion in debt with no end in sight to the deficit spending that will bankrupt the nation soon.

But even more important and critical to the future of freedom and liberty in the USA, is the matter of courts acting like unelected and unaccountable dictatorships, oligarchies and legislatures.

There is absolutely nothing unbiased, objective, or non-partisan about a bunch of partisan political appointees, hired for a lifetime. Look no further than the U.S. Supreme Court for proof, where most court decisions are down strict party lines, just like the divided legislature.

Republican Presidents have tended to nominate Justices on the basis of their past judicial records, and those Justices often rule against the Presidents who appointed them. But democrats have never passed up an opportunity to seat the most extreme-left Justices they can find, despite a lack of qualifications.

Face it, today, all Federal Courts are “activist” courts. When the U.S. Supreme Court can find a right to gay marriage in the 14th Naturalization Amendment, the courts have lost their minds and are completely untethered from their Constitutional limitations.

But why do so many Americans believe these Judges have a power they were never granted in Article III of the Constitution? And how much longer will Presidents, Congress, the States and the people allow the courts to act as legislatures and dictators before the whole house of cards crumbles?

Who elected Musk? I ask...who elected the Judges to dictate U.S. policy?

The answer is...no one!

“The germ of dissolution of our federal government is in the constitution of the federal Judiciary; an irresponsible body (for impeachment is scarcely a scare-crow) working like gravity by night and by day, gaining a little today and a little tomorrow, and advancing its noiseless step like a thief, over the field of jurisdiction, until all shall be usurped.” (Jefferson Letter to Charles Hammond, August 18, 1821)

© 2025 Lex Greene – All Rights Reserved

E-Mail Lex Greene: LexGreene24@gmail.com