

Why democrats don't want to make America great again

Article IV – Section 4 of the U.S. Constitution reads – “The United States shall guarantee to every state in this union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion; and on application of the legislature, or of the executive (when the legislature cannot be convened) against domestic violence.” – This is a Constitutional idea and promise that today's Democratic Party is 100% opposed to...

The Obama administration has done everything it could do to undermine the guarantee made in Article IV – Section 4 of the U.S. Constitution. In part, it is this section of the Constitution which is at the foundation of Democrat claims that our Constitution is an old, outdated, useless document that stands in the way of their vision for a Global Marxist Open Society via Democratic Socialism – their new definition for “democracy.”

To put a fine point on the subject, there is nothing at all “democratic” about today's Democratic Party, which is why that party is on the brink of extinction in America. In fact, today's Democrats want neither a “Republican form of government” as guaranteed by our Constitution, or a true “democracy” ruled by popular vote alone.

The hot button topics that keeps the DNC afloat would all go down in flames under a pure democracy wherein voters would decide every issue by popular referendum.

- Gay marriage would be voted down
- Abortion would be voted down
- Higher taxation would be voted down
- More regulation would be voted down
- Open borders would be voted down

- Refugee Resettlement from the Middle East would be voted down
- Government run health care would be voted down
- Affirmative action would be voted down

In fact, nothing today's Democratic Party stands for could survive a public referendum by pure democratic process. So, it isn't "democracy" that today's Democrats want, nor is it the Republican form of government guaranteed every state and every American in this country under Article IV – Section 4.

If you look at the basic "special interest" planks of the DNC in the bullet points above, you will see that the DNC has made itself a "minority interest organization" based upon issues opposed by the vast majority of Americans. They are NOT the "all inclusive" political party they claim to be in their campaign rhetoric. Their party includes everyone except Americans...

Therefore they, to include the remaining democrats in Congress, on the courts, at the State Houses, mayors and city councils will fight tooth and nail against Trumps effort to "make America great again." They don't want America to ever be great again!

After all, it isn't Marxism, liberalism, progressivism or democratic socialism that made America great in the first place. It was free market capitalism, personal freedom, individual liberty, the sacrifices of the millions in pursuit of their own happiness under their own steam, by the sweat of their own brow, that once made America the greatest nation ever known to mankind. It was a Republican form of government that allowed the people to flourish and prosper, and grow a great society of free people.

Unfortunately, Marxist progressives have wormed their way into academia, pseudoscience, governmental bodies and the courts. As a result, we have college students hating Donald Trump and loving the likes of Fidel Castro, Che Guevara and Karl Marx – Bernie Sanders, Jill Stein and Hillary Clinton.

In the book TRUMPED: The New American Revolution released in May 2016, we lay out who the real enemies of freedom and liberty are, their written game plan for destroying our Constitutional Republic step-by-step, their war tactics for accomplishing that goal and what the American people were poised to do about it in the 2016 election, which has since happened with the election of Trump-Pence.

The book was not written about Donald Trump, or as a campaign endorsement, or even to help Trump-Pence win the election. It was researched and written to help every American understand what Trump, Pence and all Americans are up against in the effort to make America great again. It was written to engage all Americans in a lofty goal that Trump alone, will not be able to accomplish.

In truth, many who voted for Trump did so simply because they opposed everyone else. Others bought into Trump's vision for America, without knowing what Trump must overcome, or what they must help him overcome to make that vision a reality. TRUMPED was written for all of them... but it was also written for all Americans who have been trained to "fear" a Republican form of government. Trained to seek government tyranny to protect them from freedom and personal responsibility.

Those who have read the book understand completely that today's Democratic Party is totally destructive of the Constitutional Republic and the party needs to be dumped on the ash heap of history and a new truly democratic party formed.

They also understand that they will have a critical personal role to play in Trump's success if we are to ever make America great again.

I voted for Trump... believing that Trump will do everything in his power to make America great again – but at the same time, knowing he will not be able to do that alone, without the help of millions of Americans who will remain engaged in a productive way after the election.

Today's Democrats do not want America to be great again. Many average democrat voters do, but they have been trained to work against themselves by the DNC and Democratic Socialists. Until the people learn the truth about who has kept a boot on their neck all these years, while claiming to protect them, they will not be able to make America great again.

TRUMPED: The New American Revolution should be under every Christmas tree this year, a copy for each member of the family, for the immediate future and for all posterity. It is necessary for every American to know who is really working against them and how, as well as who is really working for them.

Until every American understands what it takes to make any country great and who stands in the way, they will fall short of their stated goal, to make America great again!
