

Why Donald Trump will become president of the United States

For the past 45 years, every president and all our Congresses failed the American people on massive levels. Members of Congress allowed themselves to be duped into a bogus war in Vietnam, Desert Storm, Afghanistan and Iraq.

The American people did not ask for or want those wars. Who did? Answer: the bankers, Military Industrial Complex and corporations who stood to make a profit from the deaths of so many of our soldiers.

In the past 45 years, members of Congress and five presidents never enforced our sovereign borders or our internal employment laws that prohibited transporting, housing and employing illegal aliens. Instead, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce led the way to inject as many legal and illegal immigrants into America to drive Americans out of work and lowers wages to subsistence levels.

In the past 45 years, Congress flooded our country with 100 million legal third world immigrants. Today, we face accelerating fracturing of our ethos, national cohesiveness, language and culture.

Along with the past four decades, members of Congress passed laws to offshore, out-source and in-source jobs out of American workers' hands. Congress' activities drowned us in debt with 48 million people subsisting on food stamps and welfare housing.

Along the way, members of Congress and presidents created a $19 trillion debt that could very well collapse our entire economy. Our second president John Adams said, "There are two ways to conquer a nation: by the sword or by debt." We face massive consequences that none of the members of Congress address, let alone solve.

Seven years ago, a totally unqualified man arrived on the scene with "Hope and Change" as his mantra. In the past seven years of Barack Obama, everything worsened as to trade agreements, racial violence, ongoing war in Afghanistan, refugees flooding into America, terrorism manifesting from Boston to San Bernardino, joblessness and educational breakdown on a level unseen in the past 50 years. Over 10 million Americans cannot secure a job. Their kids can't find a summer job because over 100,000 legal and illegal immigrants flood into our country every 30 days.

Worse, for the African-American community, 73 percent of African-American children arrive out of wedlock and into immediate welfare and poverty. Our African-American president did nothing to change their fate as to job training, jobs or solutions. Instead, he spent a lot of time on the golf course.

With our country reeling from terror attacks, joblessness and racial conflict—the usual career, corrupt politicians jumped onto the stage to make their bid for the presidency. As usual, they spouted and spout the same bunch of gobble-d-gook as their predecessors. In other words, whether republican or democrats, the American people will find themselves facing the same consequences because those same politicians of the past won't do anything to change the future toward a better America.

Enter a brash, real American business tycoon named Donald Trump. Flamboyant, outspoken, "Let's make America great again." He draws millions to his rallies and news sites who interview him.

Trump talks about what he expects to accomplish as president of the United States. No matter how many gaffs he makes or “ego” oriented statements, Americans love him because he speaks their language. He addresses their frustrations and anger. He speaks about solving the problems by doing something like building a wall, like changing trade agreements, like enforcing our immigration laws by deporting border jumpers. He talks about renegotiating trade agreements instead of giving China our manufacturing jobs. He expects to re-work Obamacare to a viable health care system.

Trump made the obvious connection to ban all Muslim immigration until we get a handle on Muslim violence in the USA. He would stop the 200,000 Syrian refugee invasion of our country. Why? It makes common sense to protect our citizens from further Muslim violence now overwhelming Europe.

Americans cheer him. Americans stand up for him. Americans love him because he loves Americans. He’s actually a red-blooded American born in America. He’s a proven success and he’s a proven man of excellence.

While the ‘usual’ talking heads can’t figure out his popularity, he steams ahead because he’s about to shake up the ‘good ole boy’ corrupt network of career politicians who haven’t served America or our interests: Pelosi, Boxer, Feinstein, Schumer, McCain, Hatch, Bennet, Gardner, Rubio, Reid, Gutierrez, Levin and the rest of those men and women who live in that DC corruption cartel.

For the first time in decades, we stand a chance to renew our country. We stand a chance to renew our faith in ourselves with his energy, brashness, ego and competence. He’s a citizen president.

Donald Trump earned my vote. I bet he’s got yours, too.
